Description of Research and Scholarly or Creative Objectives

Broadly speaking, my scholarship focuses on integrating feminist care ethics in nursing education, with colleagues, students and vulnerable patient populations such as those with mental illness. I serve as a consultant for acute care psychiatric facilities in New Jersey and Montego Bay Jamaica, developing research and education initiatives to enhance staff development and ultimately improve patient care outcomes. My educational research focuses on integrating diverse teaching and evaluation methodologies to enhance student learning, clinical teaching, and faculty mentoring.
