TEACHING ACTIVITIES

Special Courses Taught

2020 & 2021 Undergraduate, Honors Seminar on Professional Nursing, Rutgers University School of Nursing, Camden

2023, 2024, 2025 Independent Study – Women’s Health Research

Curricular Development - Courses and Programs Developed

09/2025-01/2026 Community and Global Health in the Philippines: I developed the first-ever Rutgers learning abroad program in the Philippines. This transformative experience integrates rigorous academic inquiry with immersive cultural and community engagement, centering on the core theme of Filipino women’s health. This course had been approved by the International Students and Global Programs, Rutgers University, Camden, NJ.

2021& 2022 Seminar Course redevelopment utilizing open access grant: I redesigned the course to eliminate the cost of expensive course textbooks and provided the students with open access resources that are aligned with nursing competencies. The updated resources reflected today’s rapidly evolving healthcare environment.
